Mike Yoket, who returned to the city Sunday after a two months' absence, said that he was sent for to wrestle at Malad, but he did not know whom he was to meet. Upon his arrival he met several Sait Lake, boys who had bet heavily on him. Yokel smelled a rat right away when he was informed of the details of the match and told his friends that they had better draw down their money but the money was posted and the "surething" men refused to cough up. Mike consented to give his friends a run for their money and he did by making Herbert Jones quit. The latter is supposed to be Jess Westergaard a heavyweight wrestler, but nothing definite can be found out about the stranger. OPENS NEXT THURSDAY The Salt Lake Athletic club has secured a lease on the Auditorium on Richards street, where the club anticipates promoting six-round boxing contests, commencing next Thursday evening.

Yokel said that Jones is 6 feet. 2 inches in height and must weigh at least 175 pounds. When the men stepped upon the mat the ringer wore a confident smile. George McLaughlin and Tom Davis were puit up for referees. Davis finally being selected, and Mike Yokel said that Davis gave him a raw deal. After an hour and ten minutes of wrestling Jones showed a streak of yellow and claimed foul. Mike was turning him over with a bar and neck held and could not understand how the referee could allow a claim of foul, but Mike said it was done to save the grafters' money.

Those who engineered the match knew well that Sait Lake fans will back Yokel against anybody. This was a case where Yokel was to be used to down his friends but the grafters.

PRIZE RING AFFAIRS TO BE CLOSELY WATCHED

Jeffries Surprises Visitors With His Fast Work With the Gloves.

BEN LOMOND, Cal. May 22.—In the presence of fifty members of the Olympic club and a number of prominent San Francisco sporting men, Jeffries gave the best boxing exhibition of his present season, at his training quarters this morning. The fighter went through nine fast rounds of sparring with his brother Jack, Joe Choynski and Bob Armstrong, and at the finish there was not a man smong the spectators who did not express the opinion that he was in excellent condition. Chief of Police Martin of San Francisco saw the workout and was highly entinuslastic in regard to Jeffries' improvement in physical fitness.

The fighter followed the glove work with shadowing boxing, rope skipping and two fast games of handball. All this labor followed five miles on the road and an hour's row on the river. No work was attempted during the afternoon, Jeffries, with his partner, Jack Kipper, and Chief Martin, leaving for Santa Cruz in Rickard's automobile.

Jack Gleason paid his respects to Jeffries for the first time since the establishment of the Ben Lomond training camp. The co-promoter was merely making a friendly call and had no business chat with Jeffries.

Chief Martin stated that in the future all prize ring affairs will be conducted under his personal supervision.

"This goes for the hig fight, as well as for the lesser bouts," he said. "The fight fans should be protected, and I believe I know enough of the game to see that its patrons should not get the worst of it. The moment a fight looks peculiar to me, I'll step it without consulting either referee or promoter."
